Second part

Management Bodies, Duties and Operation of Dormitories

Duties of the Dormitory Manager

Article 5- Dormitory Manager;

With the approval of the Board of Trustees and the approval of the Rectorate, a Dormitory Manager who is a graduate of the relevant departments of the university and experienced in his field is appointed to the Student Dormitories. Dormitory Manager;

- a- Ensures the implementation of the general rules and principles set out in this directive.
- b- Supervises the Dormitory Deputy Managers.
- c- Takes the necessary measures to resolve the problems reported to it.
- d- Implements the decisions of the Rectorate.
- e- Manages administrative affairs.
- f- Develops plans and projects regarding the management and development of dormitories and submits them to the Rectorate.

Deputy Dormitory Managers

Article 6- Upon the recommendation of the Dormitory Manager, two Deputy Dormitory Managers are appointed to work in the Girls' and Boys' Dormitories. Deputy Dormitory Managers implement the decisions taken by the Rectorate and Dormitory Directorate and carry out the administrative affairs of the dormitory for which they are responsible.

Student Dormitory Disciplinary Board

Article 7- Student Dormitory Disciplinary Board:

Under the Chairmanship of the Vice Rector; it consists of The Student Center Coordinator, a representative appointed by the relevant Faculty Deanships and the Dormitory Manager.

Duties of Student Dormitory Disciplinary Board

Article 8-

(1) Dormitory Disciplinary Board,

- a- Evaluates the situations of students referred to the Disciplinary Board with the incident reports recorded by the Dormitory Management.
- b- Decides on disciplinary procedures.
- c- Examines and concludes the requests and objections regarding the decisions of the Disciplinary Board.
- d- Submits the decisions taken to the Rectorate.

(2) Necessary examinations are carried out by the institution management before the student is referred to the Disciplinary Board.

(3) The Disciplinary Board receives the defense of the student referred to the disciplinary board in writing or orally, provided that it is recorded in the minutes.

If the summoned student does not attend the invitation or does not give a statement, or if it is understood that he/she is not in the institution without permission, the situation is determined in a report and the decision is made by the disciplinary board in the absence of the relevant person. If more than one act requiring disciplinary punishment occurs, each act is evaluated separately by the disciplinary board.

(4) When giving punishment to a student, the Disciplinary Board pays attention to the nature and importance of the student's behavior, his general situation inside and outside the institution, the conditions under which the crime was committed, the student's mental state when he committed the crime, and the mitigating and aggravating reasons for the act.

(5) If deemed necessary, the Disciplinary Board may expand the investigation collectively or by assigning one of its members.

(6) Disciplinary Board decisions are recorded in the disciplinary board decision book.

(7) Any incident that occurs in the dormitories and requires a judicial investigation is reported to the relevant authorities by the Rectorate as soon as possible.

If any of the students staying in the dormitories is arrested, disciplinary procedures will be carried out according to the results of the judicial proceedings.

Conditions for Admission to the Dormitory

At the beginning of each academic year, dormitories for girls and boys are determined according to the needs of that year, and dormitory placements are made according to a certain priority order.

This priority order is as follows: If deemed necessary, the dormitory admission priority of students or the order related to this priority may be changed by the University.

1. Newly registered students who were placed with YKS
2. Dormitory scholarship students according to YKS Scores
3. New students outside Istanbul
4. Current students outside Istanbul
5. International students
6. New students in Istanbul
7. Current students in Istanbul

Article 9- Students who want to stay in dormitories:

a- They must be Yeditepe University students, b- They must apply to reside in the dormitory within the announced period in accordance with the necessary procedures and principles. Registration, settlement and check-out dates for student dormitories are determined by the Rectorate every year according to the academic calendar. The registration of students who apply to the dormitory and are not settled as of the registration and course start date specified in the academic calendar will be deleted. If the information provided by the students to enter the dormitory does not match the information obtained as a result of the research, the Dormitory Directorate investigates the issue. A student who is found to have provided incorrect information will not be admitted to the dormitory. The documents required to admit foreign students to the dormitory and the number of students are determined by the Rectorate.

Duration of Stay in Dormitory

Article 10- You can only stay in the dormitory for the periods specified in the service commitment and this directive. Transfer procedures within the university do not give the right to restart the period. The student must complete the dormitory leaving procedures within 3 days from the end of the service period specified in the service commitment. Otherwise, after the period, 3 (three) times the amount corresponding to the daily service fee will be collected from the student for each day of stay in the dormitory.

Apart from the relevant periods, the Rectorate determines the students who need to stay in the dormitory for reasons such as summer school, compulsory internship, and the duration of their stay. It is not possible to stay in a dormitory during the summer period, except for summer school and compulsory internship. Students who want to stay in the dormitory due to Compulsory Internship; They must submit their requests to the Registry Office at least 1 month before the accommodation date, along with the petition and the compulsory internship document attached. The stay of the students who are not registered to the dormitory is subject to the permission of the Rectorate due to their participation in sports, festivals, seminars, etc.

Students who leave the University for any reason must terminate their relations with the dormitory within one week. Students who have taken a semester leave from the University, suspended their registration, and students who have a medical report for more than 30 days and no right to attend classes cannot stay in the dormitory during this period. Students who are dismissed due to leave or report while staying in the dormitory are readmitted to the dormitory at the end of the leave or report period.

The Disciplinary Board may, based on a reasoned decision, terminate the student's relationship with the dormitory or prohibit him or her from being admitted to the dormitory, if it deems it undesirable for him to stay in the dormitory. Even if they have been amnestied, the Rectorate decides whether students who have been convicted of any crime or who have been subjected to administrative-judicial prosecution will be admitted to the dormitory. Students who are suspended from the University cannot stay in dormitories during the suspension period.

If the dormitory service is suspended or completely terminated due to any force majeure, the belongings of the students in their rooms are kept by the dormitory management until the date when it is possible for the students to access the dormitories. Once it becomes possible for students to access the dormitories, the belongings will be received by the students within the reasonable dates determined by the dormitory management.

If the student does not receive his belongings within the specified time, he cannot hold the dormitory management responsible for the fate of his belongings.

Students who do not comply with the dormitory stay period cannot apply to the dormitory the following year and will not be accepted into the dormitory.

Third part

Registration

Dormitory Fee

Article 11- You can stay in the dormitory for a fee. Dormitory fees include accommodation only; It does not include food, beverages and other services. Dormitory fees for each academic year are determined by the Rectorate in May each year and are announced to students via e-mail and on various University media.

Payments

Article 12- Payment conditions for the dormitory fee are as follows:

a- Registration of existing students is carried out in June every year at the latest, and registration of new students is carried out on the registration dates determined by YÖK for new students.

b- In order for students to complete their dormitory registration, applications must be made on the dates announced by the Rectorate and payment transactions must be completed by the specified dates. If payment is not made on time, dormitory rights are given to reserve students.

c- The rooms of students who are entitled to receive a dormitory scholarship based on their YKS rankings are guaranteed if they make a written application on the dates determined by the Rectorate.

d- The University does not have any room type commitment for students who are entitled to receive a dormitory scholarship based on their YKS Rankings. These students stay in the rooms assigned to them in line with the planning made.

e- Students who receive their room card; they are obliged to report any missing or damaged room fixtures to the Dormitory Management within 24 (twenty-four) hours. Otherwise, the student is responsible for all deficiencies and damages found in the room. All students staying in the dormitory must pay a deposit fee in the amount determined by the Rectorate, along with the dormitory fee. The deposit fee is determined every year. Students who do not pay the deposit fee cannot settle in the dormitory. This fee is refunded to the student's account when they leave the dormitory, after it is determined that they have not damaged any materials or fixtures and that they do not have any debts related to the dormitory. The deposit of the student who does not pay the dormitory fee will not be refunded. If the student has a debt due to the damage caused, the damage fee will be deducted from the deposit and the remainder will be refunded.

f- Students who terminate their relations with the dormitory and will not stay in the dormitory in subsequent semesters fill out the deposit request forms for refund. Deposit refunds are made at the end of the year, except for graduation reasons.

g- For those who are accepted to the dormitory after the education has started, the education period specified in the Yeditepe University Associate and Undergraduate Education and Examination Regulations and the periods spent in the dormitory are determined by proportioning and the fee is collected.

h- Damage caused to dormitory buildings and extensions, dormitory fixtures and materials subject to follow-up will be made to be paid by the person who caused the damage, based on the cost on the payment date. Among registered students who leave the institution until September 15, 10% of the annual housing service fee determined in the service delivery commitment will be charged, and for those who leave after September 15, the full fee for the months in which they received housing service and the current month and 40% of the housing service fee for the remaining months will be charged. In cases where these students are paid in advance with their deposits, the remaining amount after deducting the fee calculated according to this article will be refunded within one month and the service delivery commitment will be terminated. The monthly accommodation service fee is determined by dividing the annual accommodation service fee determined in the service delivery commitment by the number of months determined for the service to be provided. Students who receive a penalty of expulsion from the institution will be charged the full fee for the months in which they received accommodation services and the current month, and a maximum of 60% of the accommodation service fee for the remaining months. In cases where these students are paid in advance with their deposits, the remaining amount after deducting the fee calculated according to this paragraph will be refunded within one month and the service delivery commitment will be terminated.

i- After the student vacates his room, he must hand over his keys to the dormitory administration. If the room key is not returned, the room will not be considered vacated. A student who does not vacate his room within 10 days at the end of the semester will be obliged to pay 2 (two) times the daily fee paid during the semester for each day of his stay.

j- The student who causes damage to the dormitory building and its extensions is obliged to compensate for this damage. Damages caused by more than one student will be divided equally among the students and compensated or deducted from their deposits. If the damage cost is covered by a deposit, the deposit is completed by the student within 1 week to the amount specified in the Agreement. The Rectorate has the sole authority to determine the cost of damage and the students who caused the damage.

j- The student who leaves the dormitory without applying to the Dormitory Directorate in writing (without completing the check-out process and handing over the keys) pays the dormitory fee for the period until the day of de-registration, regardless of whether he actually resides in the dormitory or not.

k- Dormitory fees continue to be collected from students registered in the dormitory during the semester break. During the summer months, fees are charged only for students who will stay in the dormitory.

l- Students staying in the dormitory are strongly requested to insure their valuable belongings against theft or other damage. Dormitory Administration cannot be held responsible for loss or damage.

Disciplinary Procedures and Penalties

Article 16- Students staying in the dormitory must comply with the dormitory rules specified in this directive. Students who do not comply with the rules are subject to penalties specified in the relevant legislation.

16.1. Disciplinary penalties in the Ministry of Youth and Sports Higher Education Private Accommodation Services Regulation are applied to students who do not comply with the issues specified in the Discipline section of the Ministry of Youth and Sports Higher Education Private Accommodation Services Regulation, do not comply with the rules, and exhibit attitudes and behaviors that do not suit being a student inside or outside the institution.

16.2. The following disciplinary penalties are imposed on students who do not comply with the issues specified in this Regulation, do not comply with the rules, and exhibit attitudes and behaviors that do not suit being a student inside or outside the institution.

16.3. Warning

A warning is a written notification to the student that his/her behavior is faulty.

Acts that require a warning penalty are as follows:

Engaging in acts that may disturb others in the institution's buildings and facilities.

Not paying attention to cleanliness.

Damaging the institution's buildings and facilities or fixtures.

Using someone else's property without permission.

16.4. Reprimand

Reprimand is a written notification to the student that he/she has committed a behavior that requires disciplinary punishment and that he/she should avoid repeating it.

Acts that require a reprimand are as follows:

To make behavior against the rules of social living a habit.

Making it a habit to come late or not come to the institution without permission.

Keeping knives and similar cutting and piercing tools specifically made for attack or defense use in the institution.

Insulting institution staff or students.

Damaging someone else's belongings.

Organizing a meeting or ceremony in the institution without permission from the management.

16.6. Power to impose penalties:

Warning, reprimand and dismissal penalties are given by the Disciplinary Board.

16.7. Notification of the penalty:

The penalty decision is notified to the student in writing in person or by sending a scanned copy of the penalty decision to the student's e-mail address with the extension yeditepe.edu.tr allocated by the University.

16.8. Objection to penalty:

The student may appeal in writing to the Rectorate against warnings, reprimands, or dismissal from the institution within five business days from the date of notification of the penalty.

16.9. Working procedures and principles of the disciplinary board:

The necessary examination and research is carried out by the personnel assigned by the Dormitory Director before the student is referred to the disciplinary board.

The assigned staff takes written statements from the student and any relevant parties. The student must give his statement within three days when he is in the dormitory, and within seven days if he is not in the dormitory. If the student does not testify within the stipulated time, the student is deemed to have given up testifying.

The assigned staff submits the result to the disciplinary board in the form of a report, adding the student's written statement and all kinds of information and documents related to the subject.

The student's defense is taken by the disciplinary board. If the student does not submit a written defense within three days when he is in the dormitory, or within seven days if he is not in the dormitory, from the date of notification, he is deemed to have waived his right to defense.

The student will not be punished until his/her defense is heard by the disciplinary board.

The disciplinary board meets within three business days from the date the defense is submitted to the board and makes a decision within seven business days. If the quest is not completed within this period, the period may be extended for a period not exceeding seven working days by making an interim decision.

Approved disciplinary penalties are recorded in the disciplinary board decision book and the Ministry's information system.

When giving disciplinary punishment, a severe or light punishment may be given, taking into account the student's behavior and behavior inside and outside the institution, his attitude towards the institution administration and his friends, the conditions under which the act or situations were committed, his psychological state and other reasons. However, if a higher degree of punishment is given due to repetition of a disciplinary offense, further aggravation cannot be imposed.

If a disciplinary investigation is not initiated against those who commit acts and situations that require disciplinary punishment within fifteen days from the date on which it is learned that these acts and situations have been committed, the authority to impose disciplinary punishment expires. If disciplinary punishment is not imposed from the date on which the acts and situations requiring disciplinary punishment are committed until the end of the academic year, the authority to impose punishment expires.

Student Experiencing Health Problems and Their Treatment

a- Students staying in the dormitory are sent to the Student Health Center when they have health problems. In case of not being sent to the center, the medical team is called.

b- If the doctor deems it necessary, he may refer the student to the hospital by ambulance. In this case, the student is asked to inform his friend, family or relatives so that he can be accompanied. If a companion cannot be found, dormitory staff may accompany the student until a relative arrives, depending on the Dormitory Management's working schedule.

c- Outpatient or inpatient treatment fees at the hospital are paid by the student.

d- When students living in the dormitory have a health problem, accompanying persons are not allowed to stay in the student's room.

e- With the determination of the Dormitory Management or the notification of the roommates, the student who is not in compliance with the dormitory collective living rules is directed to psychologists working at the Student Center. In psychopathological cases, the student's family is informed and directed to treatment.

f- Illnesses and similar emergencies encountered by students are monitored in coordination with the Student Health Center.

Working Conditions of Dormitory Staff

Article 18- 24-hour service is essential in dormitory operation. For this reason, there are enough officers on duty in the dormitory. These people carry out their services according to the instructions issued by the Dormitory Management. Night service is a continuation of the general duty.

Services in Dormitory

Article 19- Small businesses (barbers, hairdressers, stationery stores, canteens, tailors, etc.) can be opened or may be opened to meet the needs of students living in the dormitories, with the approval of the Board of Trustees and the approval of the Rectorate. These businesses are inspected by the Dormitory Directorate.

Public Network (Internet) Usage

Article 20- The use of public network (internet) in the dormitory depends on the principles stated below.

a- Network resources allocated for students' personal computers in dormitory rooms (network connection, IP-MAC address pair, on/off campus access, etc.) can be used within the framework of "Yeditepe University Information Resources Usage Policy", the full text of which can be found in the network policies section at the bottom of this page.

b- Personal uses on the network should never prevent other users from fulfilling their primary network access requirements (academic, education, research). In this regard, the rules and prohibited activities that must be followed when using network resources are stated below:

i. In addition to violating copyrights and licenses, "Peer-to-peer (P2P - point-to-point)" file sharing programs consume high bandwidth, leaving no resources available for network use for primary purposes. Therefore, the use of all "peer-to-peer" file sharing tools is prohibited.

ii. It is prohibited to use network resources for personal gain or profit.

iii. Sending mass e-mails (mass mailing, mail bombing, spam) and enabling third parties to send them using network resources is prohibited.

iv. It is forbidden to have server computers that provide services (web hosting service, e-mail service, DHCP, DNS, etc.) and the use of access points and wireless replicators in dormitory rooms.

v. Any activity (proxy, relay, IP sharer, NAT, Spotify; wireless sharing, Teamviewer, Ammy, etc.) that may cause university network resources to be used outside the university or allow people or computers outside the university to present themselves as if they are inside the university is prohibited.

vi. Engaging in activities that threaten network security (DoS attack, port-network scanning, etc.) is prohibited.

vii. An IP number is allocated for each computer/device accessing the network. Changing this IP number and/or the hardware address (MAC address) of the network interface is prohibited. If requested, MAC address (media access control address) information is reported to the Information Technology Coordinatorship. In cases where changes are necessary (purchasing a new computer, Ethernet card malfunction, etc.), approval must be obtained from the Dormitory Management before making any changes.

viii. It is forbidden to broadcast wireless networks through a single device or application using the networks provided by the dormitory or to use any software that provides hotspot service. The Student is solely responsible for any direct and indirect damages arising from violations within the scope of this article.

ix. Every student who has a computer registered to his name in his dormitory room is responsible for the use and security of the resources allocated to him by the university (network connection, IP-MAC address pair, on-campus/off-campus access, etc.) and in case these resources are used by third parties, consciously or unconsciously student is primarily responsible for any prohibited activities that may occur.

x. When necessary, the Information Technology Department may restrict or block network access temporarily or indefinitely for security reasons.
